GOOD CITIZENSHIP

Sermon on the Duty of Good Citizens Who are to Vote at Tomorrow's City Election.

At the First Baptist church last night before a large audience, the pastor, Dr. E. B. Jackson, spoke on the duty of "Citizens at the Polls," in anticipation of the election for the city council and the board of aldermen tomorrow. He declared that "some very vital problems were pressing upon the city for solution and they demanded the right type of men in office. He thought that we should inquire into the candidates and vote for only the very best men. A city official should have the reputation for absolute honesty in his dealings. He should not be a profiteer and he should not take an unfair advantage of his position for selfish reasons. Then he should be a man with ideals and willing to stand positively for those ideals. Let the voter be certain that he is found in association with the forces of righteousness in the community. Let him be held in awe by the forces that would treat the laws of our state as "scraps of paper."

"Then, too, he must be a man who does not hesitate to declare himself on moral questions and matters that touch the vital interests of our community. If he is afraid of possible effect on his popularity or his business he is scarcely fit for these positions.

"It is evident that if certain state laws touch the pocketbook of some in Alexandria we need a council which will support our police force," said Rev. Jackson. "We are rapidly approaching the time when our children will need to be safeguarded by a curfew law—vote for the man who has a care for the children. We need men who will see that the community is not outraged by unseemly exhibitions that may endanger our girls.

"We need men who will appreciate the importance of carrying on our public schools with the greatest efficiency and who will furnish funds necessary to secure first-rate teachers. Let all citizens see that proper men are put in office."

NEGRO WOMAN CUT

Edna Lloyd Makes Murderous Attack On Betty Mason.

A serious cutting affray took place Saturday night between Edna Lloyd and Bettie Mason in what is known as "Chicken Alley" in the northeastern section of the city, during which the former used a knife upon the latter, almost severing one of her breasts and making a dangerous wound in her arm. The injured woman was hurried to the Alexandria hospital, and her assailant arrested. The Lloyd woman was brought before the Police Court this morning, when she was ordered to be held to await the result of her victim's injuries. The two have been before the Police Court several times recently on various charges.

PENALTY INCREASED

Jerry Sims Fined $100 and Sentenced to Serve Nine Months In Jail.

Jerry Sims, colored, who was arrested Saturday night for violating the prohibition law, was brought before the Police Court this morning and sent on to the grand jury. This tribunal returned a true bill later in the day and Jerry was fined $100 and sentenced to serve nine months in jail. This means a year's imprisonment, as the accused will be made to serve three months for non-payment of the fine.

In the case of Albert Wilson, colored, charged with violating the prohibition law, the grand jury brought in a true bill. His case will come before the Corporation Court Wednesday.

At the Grand Theater.

A double bill will be shown at the Grand Theater tomorrow and will include high class actors, including Wm. S. Hart and other well known screen artists. No increase in admission prices will be made, however. Tonight's show will be the famous German war picture.

Killed In Action.

London, June 10.—Brig. Gen. Frederick W. Lumsden, V. C., D. S. O., has been killed in action, according to a report from the British front today. He was born in 1871, and was promoted to be a brigadier general in 1915.

DEFENSE IS STIFFENED

French and Americans Strike Fresh Blow Near Chateau Thierry, Taking Prisoners and Machine Guns.

Paris, June 10.—The new German drive between Montdidier and Noyon slowed down before the French resistance yesterday evening and last night, the French official communique indicated today.

Gains of about a mile were made by the enemy in the center and on the allied left wing, in comparison with the initial penetration of three miles.

Simultaneously American and French troops advanced again northwest of Chateau Thierry, taking 250 prisoners and thirty machine guns.

On the left wing several violent attacks were broken up by French fire. Courcelles-Epayelles was taken and retaken several times, and finally was held by the French.

"On the right the French held south and east of Ville (three miles southwest of Noyon), taking 500 prisoners," the communique said.

"In the center, new German forces made slight progress, reaching the southern outskirts of Cuvilly (eight miles southeast of Montdidier, Ressons-Sur-Matz (a mile and half southeast of Cuvilly and the same distance southeast of Ressons-Sur-Matz village), and Bellinglise Chateau (four miles south of Lassigny).

"Further east there was severe fighting in Thiescort wood (northeast of Bellinlise Chateau), in which the Germans suffered heavy losses.

"North of Rheims there was heavy artillery fighting.

"The French finished yesterday the detail operation at Hautebraye, taking 150 prisoners.

"Between the Ourcq and the Marne, German attacks were repulsed east of Vinly (nine miles west and north of Chateau-Thierry).

"French and American forces gained ground near Bussaires (seven miles west and north of Chateau-Thierry), capturing 250 prisoners and thirty machine guns."

Hoover to Punish Dealers

Herbert Hoover today sprang a surprise on the retail profiteer when he declared that the butcher or grocer found guilty by local authorities of questionable trade practises came under the Food Administration ban. Retail merchants found guilty of short-weighting, misrepresentation of quality, violation of pure food laws, are guilty of profiteering, it was said today.

"I believe short-wheighting the most pernicious form of profiteering," said Herbert Hoover. "Any other questionable trade practice that shows the merchant taking advantage of the consumer implies the same tendency and should be punished. It will be if we get the evidence."

Retail butchers are said to be the most persistent offenders, short weighting and overcharging being favorite practices with them, it was learned. Many complaints have reached officials from all parts of the country.

The records of merchants charged with profiteering will be carefully examined by food officials. If city or town records show such offenders to have been guilty of similar offenses within the last year, especially of short weighting—such evidence will be used as indicating persistent profiteering on the part of the merchant under charges.

DRUNKEN CHAUFFEUR

Was Running Into Fences When Arrested by Officer Kerns.

On Saturday afternoon James Baker, colored, was directed by the owner of an automobile to carry a man to Washington. While on the return trip it is said he became intoxicated and while at Montgomery and Patrick streets was zigzagging the machine as though escaping from a German submarine.

He soon collided with a fence, and was about to strike another when the automobile became stalled in a deep gulley. Officer Kerns took Baker in charge and about 10 o'clock he was arraigned before the Police Court. He was fined $50 under the state law for operating an automobile while drunk. Baker has been before the court before for damaging automobiles.

Notice.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the Board of Aldermen for the 3rd Ward. T. R. Spicer.

Alexandria City and Suburbs

The patriotic branch of the Maccabees will meet Tuesday evening, June 11, at the home of Mrs. William Potter, 413 South Washington street.

Mrs. Samuel J. Haynes has received a card announcing the safe arrival overseas of her husband, Sergeant Samuel J. Haynes.

The Rev. Dr. William J. Morton is in Richmond, Va., attending a meeting of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

The War Saving Society of St. Mary's Catholic church will hold a meeting tomorrow evening in Lyceum hall at 8 o'clock.

Archibald J. Nalls, aged one year, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald J. Nalls, of Del Ray, died Saturday afternoon at his parents residence in Windsor avenue, Del Ray. The funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the home and burial was in Bethel cemetery.

Mr. Alfred G. Uhler, who left this city May 13, for Durant, Okla., as a representative of Potomac Presbytery, at the Southern Presbyterian convention of the United States, was the week-end guest of his son and daughter-in-law, Captain Lenox Uhler, U. S. R., and Mrs. Uhler, in Atlanta, en route to his home.

The block dance held on Saturday evening for the entertainment of the soldiers camped in this vicinity attracted several thousand persons. The entire space between King and Prince street was given over to the dancers, many of the young men and young ladies of the city being included in the company, in addition to the men in uniform. Late in the afternoon the pavement had been thoroughly washed by volunteer members of the fire department who turned on the hose and by the time the hour for dancing had arrived the street was clean and dry. Music was furnished by the 28th Engineers Regiment band from Camp McElroy, Occoquan, under direction of Sergeant Oscar Olsen. Dancing was begun shortly after 9 o'clock and continued until about 11. Lights were supplied by a half a dozen big army truck headlights stationed at convenient points about the square. During the evening the ladies of the Red Cross Refreshment and Canteen Service sold ice cream cones to the big crowd. Those in charge of the affair state that no expense whatever connected with it was or will be paid from Red Cross funds, as the labor and other items were taken care of voluntarily by those who got up the entertainment for the soldiers. It is said that another dance may be given two weeks from last Saturday night at the same place. Some idea of the popularity and novelty of the dance may be gained when it is known that estimates placed the attendance of those present at from four to five thousand people, including those who looked on.

The polls for the city election to be held tomorrow are supposed to be open from sunrise to sunset—5:11 a. m. to 8:34 p. m.

The Allison W. C. T. U. will meet tonight at 8 o'clock with the president, Miss Docia Slayton, at her home, corner of Wolfe and Fairfax streets.

Senator W. S. Kenyon and Mrs. Kenyon, of Iowa, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Eidsness at "Good View," on the Potomac.

Mrs. William Woodfield has returned to her home in Cameron street, after a two weeks' visit to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Woodfield, at her home in Fairfax.

The eclipse of the sun, which could be seen from this city late Saturday afternoon, was viewed by large numbers who were out with colored glasses.

Special exercises are being planned to be given in observance of Flag Day—Friday, June 14—by Alexandria Lodge of Elks at their rooms on Friday night.

The city schools of Alexandria will close one week from today. It is expected that there will be seventeen in the graduating class at the High School. The examinations in the various schools begin tomorrow.

The Virginia Federation of Labor will hold its next annual meeting in June of next year in Alexandria. This was decided at the meeting held last week in Portsmouth, at which three residents of this city were elected to office. They are J. W. Collins, chairman of legislative committee; W. P Kerrick, sergeant-at-arms, and W. E. Loveless, second vice president.

Graduation exercises for the nurses of the Alexandria Hospital will be held Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Young People's Building. Diplomas will be conferred on five nurses. The Hon. R. Walton Moore will address the class and the public is most cordially invited to attend. The graduating class is composed of Misses Ruby Elizabeth Houser, Clarice Tinsman and Sarah Lena Yates, Mrs. Maud Borda and Mrs. Josephine Hull Matthews.

Sergeant Matthew Wayman spoke in Christ church yard last night and all who failed to hear him should remember that he will again speak, at the same place, at 8 o'clock Saturday night, and soldiers especially are invited to be present. Sergeant Wayman is from the trenches and in eminently qualified to lecture on the war and all its phases, and his talk last night can only be designated as wonderful. Too much cannot be said in praise of him and it can only be impressed upon all who failed to hear him last night to be sure to avail themselves of the opportunity Saturday to hear the greatest war speaker that Alexandria has had the privilege of listening to.

Miss Josephine Cowhig and Miss Pauline Marks spent Sunday with friends at Round Hill, Loudoun county.

The local draft board received instructions today to send ten white men to Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., on Thursday.

Miss Elizabeth C. Bowen, 89 years of age, died yesterday afternoon at her home near Hume station, Alexandria county.

Through a misunderstanding of the time of the meeting of the city school board the name of Prof. S. A. Wood did not appear last week in the list of teachers applying for reappointment. Mr. Wood's application is now before the board and it is expected he will be reappointed.

The Grecian and Russian dance interpretations to be presented Thursday evening at Fort Hunt, by a number of young ladies from Washington, and under the direction of Mrs. Edith Wiley Wheeler, will no doubt be a most effective open-air entertainment. The Herbert Springs branch of the Rer Cross will be in charge of the affair and will have the 6:30 electric train from this city met with conveyances to transport the people who attend to the fort.

Many complaints are being made concerning the bright headlights used on automobiles passing through the city streets in the evenings. It is stated that several accidents have been narrowly averted during the past two or three nights on King street from people being blinded by the automobile lights. It is intimated that action may be taken to have all automobile lights dimned while the machines are running through the city's thoroughfares after dark.

Some man, who ought to be placed behind prison bars, gave a counterfeit five-dollar bill to one of the young girls who was selling ice cream cones for the benefit of the Red Cross Refreshment Corps on South Washington street Saturday night. She did not notice that the bill was bad until too late and she had given him a cone of cream and $4.95 in good money in change. No punishment could be too severe for a person who would be guilty of so mean and contemptible an act.

Among those who will take part in the musical program at the lawn party tomorrow, Tuesday evening, to be held at the residence of Mrs. D. G. Grillbortzer, 814 Franklin street, will be Mrs. Ava Veitch, Miss Dorothy Burkett, Miss Katherine Henderson, Miss Gladys Rodgers, Miss Ruth Le Hew, Miss Susie Pullman and Miss Lucy Graves, of this city, and Miss Billheimer and Mr. Billheimer, of Washington. The ladies in charge of arrangements urge all who have promised cakes and other articles to have them on hand early. The entertainment is under the auspices of Martha Washington Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Fire In Clifton Forge.

Clifton Forge, Va., June 10.—Fire in the Nettleton building, one of the main business blocks of the city, yesterday afternoon resulted in a loss estimated at $25,000. J. W. Match, Frank Owen, Firn Sisters, John W. Bear, J. W. White, G. A. Lowry and the Daily Review were the principal sufferers from fire and water. A call was sent to Covington for aid, and when the auto truck arrived it met with an accident that put it out of commission.

Neutrality Means Nothing

London, June 10.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Express quotes a high German official as stating that, when "Zeebrugge and Ostend are completely blocked, Germany will use the Scheldt river as a submarine base, even if it did add another enemy to Germany's list."

Germany would violate Holland's neutrality by using the Scheldt route to the open sea.

Mt. Vernon Chapter Royal Arch Masons.

At the regular convocation of Mt. Vernon Chapter No. 14 to be held in the Tabernacle Friday evening, June 7th, at eight o'clock, the Royal Arch degree will be conferred. All Royal Arch Masons and visiting Companions are cordially invited to be present

C Philip Heishley,
High Priest.

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

Boys Knocked Down at Prince and Lee and on King Street, near Washington Streets.

Late Saturday afternoon a little son of Gordon Phillips was knocked down by an automobile at the intersection of Prince and Lee streets. The youngster was playing in the street at the time, and failed to see the approaching machine. The boy was taken to the Alexandria hospital.

Early yesterday afternoon Lewis, the little son of Frank Pettey, was struck by an automobile on King street, near Washington. The boy was picked up by Officer Massey and hurried to his home, on South Lee street, where he later received surgical attention.

Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22, A. F. & A. M.

There will be a called communication of Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22 to be held in the Temple Monday evening, June 10th at 7:30 o'clock for work. All Master Masons and visiting Brethren are cordially invited to be present.

HELD FOR GRAND JURY

Jerry Sims, Colored, Charged With Violating the Prohibition Law.

Sergeants Wilkinson and Scott and Officers Kerns, Bell, Campbell and Roland, made a descent Saturday night on a house conducted by Jerry Sims, colored, in the northeastern section of the city. They arrested Sims upon the charge of violating the prohibition law, he having more than the lawful amount of liquor in his possession, and ten negroes who were in the house. The police held the latter for disorderly conduct, it being alleged that Sims conducts a disorderly house. Several of the negroes left $10 each as collateral, but failed to appear when their names were called this morning. The others were fined $10 each.

Sims was sent on to the grand jury.

To the Owners of Dogs.

Every person who owns or harbors a dog knows there is a license tax due and payable to the City Council in each year of ($1.50) one dollar and fifty cents. This is to notify all persons to make application to the City Auditor for such license during the present month. After July 1st., a fine will be added to the cost of license The police force have been instructed to report all delinquents.

DESTROY THREE BOATS

Drop Depth Bombs Into Sea After Sighting Submerged Boats.

London, June 10.—Accounts of the destruction of three enemy submarines by British aircraft were published Saturday. It is explained that the long hours of daylight enable airplanes, airships and kite balloons to assist materially in hunting down U-boats. Summer conditions favor the submarine hunters, whose incessant searching of the seas forces German craft to seek deeper waters.

An observer in a British towing balloon sighted certain things which to his trained eye, indicated the presence of a U-boat at a great depth. Depth charges were dropped, and the submarine was obliged to shift its position. The balloon continued on watch, and a hour later a submarine was observed to emerge a long distance away on the horizon and start shelling a sailing vessel.

The balloon was towed rapidly to the spot and in the meantime the U-boat was forced to submerge by shots from the towing vessel. Under the direction of the balloon observer the towing vessel got over the track of the U-boat and dropped nine depth charges. A large quantity of oil came to the surface, spreading gradually until it covered an area of a square mile.

A British dirigible sighted a U-boat attacking a merchantman. The dirigible reached the spot just after the U-boat submerged and dropped a bomb three feet astern. A quantity of oil came to the surface. The dirigible dropped a second bomb, scoring a direct hit and lifting the submarine to the surface momentarily after which its disappeared in a pool of oil.

A seaplane sighted a U-boat submerging and dropped a bomb which brought a quantity of air bubbles to the surface. The seaplane dropped a second bomb into the center of the churned water and a great quantity of oil came to the surface. The disturbance continued for so long a time it was evident the submarine was mortally wounded.

NEGRO AND HIS PISTOL

Charles Jackson Causes Excitement in "Petersburg" Section Saturday Evening.

Considerable excitement was caused in the northeastern section of the city about 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon by a negro named Charles Jackson, who entered a poolroom and became involved in a difficulty with Edward Grooms, during which Jackson drew a pistol and discharged it at his antagonist.

Officer Reid, upon hearing of the difficulty, started after Jackson, as did also Officer Massey. The latter came in sight of the negro and called upon him to halt. Jackson paid no attention to the summons, when the officer discharged his pistol at him. Jackson kept running with the officers in pursuit, and upon reaching Union street he ran into the coal yard of Smoot & Co., where he was captured by Officer Rawlett. A special session of the Police Court was held at 7 o'clock, when Jackson was fined $50 for carrying concealed weapons.

COLONIAL BEACH

Plans for the Erection of a Wharf at the Potomac River Resort.

Final plans for the erection of a wharf at Colonial Beach, Va., will be announced at a meeting of the Colonial Beach Society to be held tomorrow evening in the west study of the Public Library. The wharf is to be erected for the use of the Baltimore boats of the Maryland, Delaware & Virginia Railroad, which have recently been procured for the beach through the efforts of the society.

The present transportation service to the beach is inadequate—the largest boats cannot accommodate more than 200 passengers. The proving station for long-range guns located near the beach has greatly increased the number of passengers that the boats must transport, and it is thought that the new service will not only improve conditions, but bring a large number of summer visitors to the beach.

FOR THE FINAL TEST

Fight Can Only Be Won by Offensive Action, Says Foch.

London, June 10.—That battles can be won in the end only by the army which takes the offensive is the significant declaration made by General Foch, commander-in-chief of the allies, in an important article contributed by him to the weekly journal The Field, in which he discusses the problem of the soldier and the way to victory.

"Modern warfare, to arrive at its end and to impose its will on the enemy," says General Foch, "recognizes only one means—destruction of the enemy's organized forces.

"War undertakes and prepares this destruction by battle, which brings about the overthrow of the adversary, disorganizes his command destroys his discipline and nullifies his units as far as their fighting power is concerned.

"Our first axiom must be that completely to achieve its object, a battle must not be purely defensive. A purely defensive battle, even well conducted, does not result in a victor and a vanquished. It is simply a game that must be begun over again.

"From this it is an obvious corollary that an offensive, whether started at the beginning of an action or whether it follows the defensive, can only give results and in consequence must always be adopted at the finish.

"To maintain our position is not synonymous with being victorious, and even prepares for a defeat. If we remain where we are, and do not pass to the offensive to fix the direction of attack, to guard against the plans of the enemy and prevent him from carrying out the same maneuver, we must undertake to carry on and sustain numerous combats, each with determined aim.

"But since there remains no doubt that decisive attack is the very keystone of a battle, all other actions which make up a battle must be envisaged, considered, organized, provided with forces in the measures in which they will prepare, facilitate and guarantee development of a decisive attack characterized by its mass, its surprise, its speed and for which, in consequence, it is essential that there shall be the maximum reserve force possible of troops of maneuver. The reserve—that is to say the prepared bludgeon—is organized and kept carefully instructed to execute the single act of battle from which results are expected, namely, the decisive attack.

"In this, our supreme aim, we must not be deceived by appearances. Although theory fails when applied by feeble hands and when accessories obscure the main principle, history and reason show us that in battle there is a single argument which is worth while, namely, decisive attack, which is alone capable of assuring the desired result—the overthrow of the adversary."

"Reserves must be husbanded with the most extreme parsimony so that the bludgeon may be strong enough to make the blow as violent as possible. Let loose at the finish, without any lurking idea of saving them, with a well-thought-out plan for winning the battle at a point chosen and determined, reserves are thrown in all together in an action surpassing in violence and energy all other phases of battle, an action with proper characteristics—surprise, mass and speed. All our forces really participate, either by preparing it or by carrying it out.

SLASHES HIS WIFE'S NOSE

Soldier Unexpectedly Returns and Wields Razor Effectively.

Chester, Pa., June 10.—Granted a twenty-four-hour furlough, Walter Hollingsworth, colored, came up from Camp Meade to visit his wife, and when he reached home shortly before Saturday midnight found another man occupying his bedroom. Hollingsworth attacked the pair with a razor, the man escaping by jumping out a second-story window, but Mrs. Hollingsworth was terribly slashed on the head and face, losing a part of her nose. She is in the Chester Hospital in a serious condition, but refuses to divulge the name of her alleged companion.

A SAD COMMENTARY

Papers in different sections of the state ever and anon direct attention to the fact that a contest for Congress is being made in the Eighth (Alexandria) district. They correctly say that the present is no time for fights in the Democratic family. These papers speak of the amity which prevails in both political parties in the state and the patriotism which has taken the place of political contests. There is a contest in the First district from the fact that the position has been made vacant by the death of Representative Jones, but in all the other districts the voters in both political organizations have sensibly determined to let well enough alone, and it is difficult to realize that the old Eighth district is to be the scene of a spirited contest during the next three months.

The Democrats of the Ninth district will not antagonize Mr. Slemp, realizing as they do his patriotism, and are content to let him continue his work while our country is at war against a cruel and desperate foe.

That Mr. Carlin will be elected to succeed himself is evident from advices from every section of the district, although his opponents have the advantage, as he has no time to absent himself from Congress in order to look after his campaign. His record, however, should appeal more plainly to his constituents now than at any other time since he became their representative.

Men, however, are capricious. It has been so from time immemorial. Nearly three score years ago the Republicans in Baltimore, for no good reason, grew tired of the late Henry Winter Davis, a star of the first magnitude in the lower house of Congress. But they subsequently concluded not to make a change, and kept Mr Davis in the House of Representatives until his death in 1865. The South Carolinians, politically speaking, crucified Wade Hampton, as did the Republicans of Kansas when they made John J. Ingalls stand aside for Mr. Peffer. An attempt was made by the Massachusetts Legislature to set aside Charles Sumner for his antagonism to Ulysses S. Grant in 1872. The members, however, soon became clothed and in their right minds and Sumner was allowed to remain in the United States Senate.

Two months will elapse before the Congressional primary election in this district and certain suffragans will, we believe, be found clothed and in their right mind on that day.

WAR IDLERS AND LIARS

That the state of Virginia, through the state council of defense, is going to make a vigorous campaign against war loafers and war liars is evidenced in a letter written by C. R. Keiley, executive secretary of the Virginia Council of Defense, to Lewis H. Machen, director of the legislative reference bureau. Mr. Keiley's letter urges that Mr. Machen prepare by tonight war emergency ordinances conforming as nearly as possible with the statutes of Virginia and not conflicting with the constitution of the state.

After the ordinances are prepared it is the purpose of the state council of defense to have them introduced in every city and town council in Virginia. The ordinances are based upon suggestions drafted by the protection department of the Indiana state council of defense, and attempt to eradicate, or at least minimize idleness, disloyal utterances and the outrageous lies being circulated by the "yellow dogs."

The first ordinance deals with loafing, and by no means pertains to vagrancy alone. It undertakes to make continued idleness a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment. The trial judge in his discretion may both fine and imprison an offender.

A war loafer is construed to mean "a person, who, while the United States of America is at war with any other government or power, is not engaged continuously in a lawful employment, or who spends the daylight hours loitering on the streets, alleys or public places and who apparently does not perform manual labor sufficient that the renumeration therefor would equal the probable cost of the food consumed or clothing worn by said person."

This law is to apply to all persons more than eighteen and not more than sixty seeming not engaged in continuous employment, with few exception.

The second ordinance restricts war liars, that is to say persons who circulate false rumors relative to the war activities of the government or the Red Cross. War liars are defined as persons who "shall in the presence of one or more persons speak, write or print, or cause to be circulated in any manner any misstatement or falsehood concerning the success or defeat of the United States army or navy ,or shall in any manner give utterances to or circulate falsehoods or rumors of the movement of troops or ships of the United States.

A war liar is also fond of circulating malicious rumors concerning the health of the soldiers and sailors of the United States untrue reports of the sale of articles consigned to the American Red Cross society as gifts to soldiers and sailors. For these offenses he may under the proposed ordinance be fined $50 to which may be added six months in jail.

OF SUCH IS THE HUN

As the Richmond Virginian says, no longer are we surprised at the savage activities of the Prussian. No longer do we shudder when we read of the striking down of the women and children of the neutral and belligerent countries, nor the ghastly tortures inflicted on prisoners of war. The Hun activities on this side of the water last Monday, when women and children were left adrift on the ocean without food and protection, created little horror.

If we had not become familiar by contact and experience with the stuff the German is made of we would soon grow wiser by the following excerpts from the German thinkers and writers of the past and present. They are presented without any individual comment or remark:

The Prussians are cruel by nature; civilization will make them ferocious. —Gothe.

Nature has made the Prussians stupid, science has made them wicked.—Heine.

O Germany, hate now! Arm thyself with steel and pierce with thy bayonet the heart of every foe; no prisoners! Lock all our lips in silence; turn our neighbors' land into deserts.—Vierodt.

Woe and death to all those who shall oppose my will. Woe and death to those who do not believe in my mission.—Kaiser Wilhelm, 1914.

War must leave nothing to the vanquished but their eyes to weep with.—Tannenberg, 1911.

It is better to let a hundred women and children belonging to the enemy die of hunger than to let a single German soldier suffer.—Von der Goltz.

Germany is destined to rule the world, or at least a great part of it. The lives of human beings are to be conserved only if it makes for the state's advantage. —General von Kries, 1916.

Use your weapons in such a way that for a thousand years no Chinese shall dare look upon a German askance. Be as terrible as Attila's Huns. —The kaiser to his troops going to China.

Whoever cannot prevail upon himself to approve from the bottom of his heart the sinking of the Lusitania—whoever cannot conquer his sense of the gigantic cruelty to unnumbered perfectly innocent victims and give himself up to honest delight at this victorious exploit of the German defensive power—him we judge to be no true German. —Pastor Baumgarten.

Perpetual peace is a dream, and it is not even a beautiful dream. War is a part of the eternal order instituted by God.—Von Moltke.

War is the most august and sacred of human activities.—Von Gottberg.

ANXIETY IN GERMANY

Fear for the economic ruin of Germany after the war because raw materials will be more quickly available to allied factories, is expressed in an article in the Vossiche Zeitung quoted in diplomatic dispatches received in Washington yesterday. So strongly does the paper feel on the subject that it demands equality for Germany in the raw material markets as a necessity for peace.

"We must require at any price," the Zeitung says, "that raw material be delivered to us as rapidly and under the same conditions as to our enemies, and we cannot rest arms before reaching this result. This is a danger before which no German man can remain indifferent. Of what use to us will be our most briliant victories, our greatest military and political successes if our economic life is opposed by enemies and cannot revive? All our sacrifices will have been made in vain."

England, the paper admits, has already gone far in conquering the world markets in which Germany competed. After the war it foresees that the English and American factories will spring into activity and flood the world before German concerns get the supplies with which to begin production.

"It is a fact," says the dispatch which transmits this opinion, "that if Germany were deprived of raw materials after the war, even for a limited number of years, a large part of her industries would be completely crippled and an unprecedented social crisis would occur."

Not a Candidate.

Editor Gazette:

I wish to make public announcement of the fact that I am not a candidate for re-election to the City Council. My present position with the United States government requires my frequent and often prolonged absence from the city, and renders it impossible for me to give the necessary attention to the duties of a councilman. Under the circumstances, I feel that it would not be right for me to seek re-election to the office, and if elected I would have to decline to serve. I therefore request my friends of the Fourth ward not to place my name on the ballot in tomorrow's election.

With my cordial and sincere thanks for past consideration I am

Very respectfully,
Charles Bendheim.

Alexandria, Va., June 10, 1918.

Kulture and War Enthusiasts.

German youth no longer rush to the colors with the enthusiasm that marked the mobilization of 1914, according to an article in the Berlin Vossische Zeitung, telling of the wartime impairment of the German educational system.

"The spirit of voluntary service which at the beginning of the war revealed itself in its fairest aspect has now disappeared," says the article. "Everywhere we hear lamentations over the increasing distaste shown for military service."

Scholastic standards in the public schools have fallen so low, it is said, that "promotions no longer represent any definite standard of accomplishment." Scholastic efficiency has suffered considerably because pupils subsisting on war diets for long periods are found to be generally undernourished.

Juvenile delinquency has spread to an alarming extent, and it is announced that "already the number of violent crimes committed by youths in the city of Berlin is more than three times the number reported in 1914."

"Thus," concludes the article, "dark shadows are falling over the brilliant picture of 1914. Every disciplinary influence, very effort of the still fundamentally sound German nation must be exerted to oppose this tendency, and to lead the children back to the path of rectitude."

ACCUSED DISMISSED

Oscar Robinson, Charged with Cutting Charles Broadus Last Month

About two weeks ago a row took place in the extreme northern section of the city between Oscar Robinson, colored, and Charles Broadus, also colored, during which Robinson used a knife upon Broadus. The latter was taken to the Alexandria hospital, where nine stitches were taken in his wounds. Robinson was arrested, but later released upon giving security to appear when wanted. Broadus had recuperated sufficiently to appear in the Police Court this morning. He was represented by Robinson Moncure. The evidence showed that Broadus brought on the difficulty, that he struck Robinson first, that the latter used an umbrella upon him, and then ran. Broadus followed Robinson with a stone, and when the latter stopped renewed the assault. Robinson drew a penknife and used it in self-defense. Robinson was dismissed.

Kaiser's "Solid Gold" Cup Is Broken Up—Trickery Exposed.

New York, June 10.—Here's the real tip off on the kaiser: Remember that solid gold cup he presented to Wilson Marshall, the American yachtsman, for winning the race across the Atlantic, back in 1905? It was designed by the kaiser himself, and reputed to be worth $5,000.

Marshall donated it to the Red Cross, and it was auctioned and re-auctioned until it brought more than $125,000. The cup recently was broken up to obtain the gold for other purposes. The result was only officially announced today. The solid gold cup was just excellent German pewter—worth at least $35.

CANNING CAMPAIGN

More Than a Thousand Teachers of Canning In the South.

More than one thousand persons will teach the latest canning methods in the South this summer.

"A tremendous canning campaign is to be started in all the fifteen southern states as soon as school is out," said Miss Agnes Helen Harris, Home Demonstration Agent for the States Relation Service, South, United States Department of Agriculture.

"There are now 1,060 Home Demonstration Agents in the fifteen southern states, 107 of whom are colored. This number is daily increasing and millions of women are coming under their instruction. By June 1 we hope to have either as a paid worker or as a volunteer every home economics teacher and every home economics graduate, who is available to assist the Home Demonstration Agents.

"Community canneries are being established throughout the entire South. Women are taught before the canning season how to can and how to dry fruit and vegetables. They are taught how to prepare fruits and vegetables for canning, then in the canning season they can bring their materials to the canning center and do the work there.

"The Department of Agriculture has sent to Baltimore a model equipment for canning and drying. It will be installed in the office of the gas company, and all summer canning and drying instruction will be given under the supervision of the Urban Home Demonstration Agents."

Repel Heavy Foe Blows.

With the American Armies in France, June 10.—While the fourth phase of the fighting was breaking out between Noyon and Montdidier, the Americans continued to hold firm on the Marne front.

In addition to beating off two enemy attacks on Bouresches (five miles west of Chateau-Thierry), and an assault against Hill 204, they advanced and occupied the edge of the wood west of Vaux (two miles west of Chateau-Thierry), and penetrated a portion of the outskirts of Chateau-Thierry, which was still occupied by the Germans. Later they returned to their own positions from this latter advance.

The Boches continued to shell Belleau wood (five miles west of Chateau-Thierry), but the marines were still holding that place.

Your Winter's Coal Supply

On account of rulings of the U. S. Fuel Administration, it seems doubtful if Virginia will receive sufficient anthracite coal to supply the demands. If present rulings are maintained, this shortage will be very great in Alexandria and we earnestly advise our customers to put in a reasonable amount of bituminous coal as a safeguard against a coal shortage next winter.

We are now securing some very fine bituminous coal which we believe will work in all characters of coal burners but the Latrobe stoves.

Better Cooking by Electricity

Women have long known that electric cooking is cleaner, that it banishes all the dust and ashes of coal and wood and soot and fumes of gas. They have known that it makes the kitchen cooler; the air purer; that is the most convenient way to cook. Now they have the word of the women who stand for the most scientific cooking methods known, that electric cooking produces better results than any other means.

Let us demonstrate the various sizes of ranges and refer you to the satisfied electric range users.

Plans Great Sea Drive.

London, June 10.—"After the land forces have driven the French and English beyond Paris, it will be the turn of the kaiser's navy to drive the English fleet off the seas," Grand Admiral von Tirpitz is quoted as declaring in an interview with the publisher of the Kieler Zeitung.

The grand admiral made this statement in reply to a query as to whether Germany is in a position to oppose her ships to the British fleet. In publishing the interview the newspaper commented on the activity in Kiel, the principal German naval base.

The Milan correspondent of the Daily Telegraph wired that reports are being widely circulated in Germany and Switzerland that orders have been given to the high seas fleet to be in readiness, and that a number of high German naval officials have been hurriedly recalled from Switzerland and other neutral countries.

Captain Persius, the British naval expert, declares that while it is well known that the British are anxious to encounter the German fleet on the open seas, "the German admiralty has no intention of risking a conflict."

"We shall not give the enemy the satisfaction of venturing out and entering upon a naval battle far from our bases and coast defenses, however," he added.

Washington, June 10—Recent Washington dispatches told of Hindenburg's efforts to force the Teuton navy into action against the British on the theory that a land victory would be futile with England's fleet intact. These dispatches said United States navy information indicated Hindenburg was likely to prevail.

U-BOAT TORPEDOES VESSEL

Belfast Ship Does Not Sink and Tugs Tow It to Port.

London, June 10.—A Belfast steamship, torpedoed by a German submarine while bound from England, has reached an Irish port, badly damaged. Three of the crew were killed by the explosion of the torpedo. No fewer than four torpedoes were discharged by the submarine. The vessel was maneuvered so adroitly, however, that three of them missed their mark.

The attack was made at night. At daybreak the vessel was still afloat, but well down at the head. The crew which had abandoned the ship, went back on board, although the forward deck was awash, determined to take her to port. The men succeeded in getting the disabled wireless plant into operation again, and flashed an urgent call for assistance. They were powerless, as the ship was unmanageable, and would have been easy prey for a submarine if one had been in the vicinity. Two tugs came up and towed the fine steamship safely to port.

The submarine, which was faster than the steamship, ran ahead of her in the darkness and lay in wait until she came alongside. The explosion of the torpedo, which was fired at close ranage, tore a great hole in the starboard side. The steamship immediately began to fill. The fifty-seven surviving members of the crew took to the boats. The three men killed were firemen.

Americans Ridiculed.

Amsterdam, June 10.—The newly elected president of the reichstag, Herr Fehrenbach, was loudly applauded during his speech in that assembly in which he referred to the Americans as the last hope of the allies.

"We are apparently confronted with a gigantic climax to the war," he said. "M. Clemenceau describes the situation as terribly serious, but he has one hope—the Americans. We and our allies do not rely on foreign forces, but, with the protection of the All Highest, on the invincible strength of the German army and the unconquerable perseverance of the German people.

"Is there still any man in the world who believes that the army which has overcome the greatest armies of Europe, re-enforced by Canadians, Australians and Asiatic troops, will recoil before the army which, perhaps, America may yet send over against us?

"If it pleases the French to see that part of beautiful France which is still undevastated converted into a battle field with Americans taking part, the responsibility for the pain and suffering falls not upon us, but upon them. With steeled, unbroken strength we will enter upon what is assuredly the last stage in this enormous struggle."

BUSINESS MEN HELP

Stores and Offices Closed In Order to Secure Help to Save Potato Crops in Texas.

The potato crop of Houston and Wharton counties, Texas, has been saved through the aid of the business men in local towns. When it was realized that the potato crop would be lost unless the farmers received help, the State extension director, cooperating with the farm-help specialist of the Department of Agriculture, explained the situation to the business men, who closed their offices and stores, went to the farms and worked with the potato growers in harvesting their crop.

Such co-operation is meaning much not only for the increasing of the food supply of the nation but is breaking down the barrier that in many cases has existed between town and country, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Business men and farmers are working hand in hand to secure an adequate food supply and to further the nation's great cause. Other communities are planning to follow the example set in these Texas counties.

KAISER IN CAESAR'S CLASS

Trying to Crucify Civilization as the Romans Did Christ.

Allentown, Pa., June 10.—That the kaiser in the present war is trying to crucify civilization, just as the Roman empire was responsible for the crucifixion of Christ, was the assertion of Rev. Dr. Ernest P. Pfatteicher, of Reading, yesterday, in the baccalaureate sermon which marked the opening of the fifty-first commencement exercises of Muhlenburg College.

Going down the long trail of history, Dr. Pfatteicher declared that the building of empires always had nailed men to the crosses. The kaiser now has the spear in the side of mankind, he said, and the wounds and sorrows of the people of the earth at the present day are the result of the kaiser's ambition for world dominion. That the ideal of Christ will conquer in the great conflict was the prophecy of the speaker, revealed by the rapid solidifying of the entire world against the machination of the Teutonic powers.

ROBBER MAKES A RICH HAUL

Seizes $2,500 Cash and as Much in Stamps and Bonds From Girl.

Pottstown, Pa., June 10.—Adolf Printz, proprietor of a number of meat stores and one of this town's wealthiest business men, was the victim of a bold robbery at midnight Saturday night while he, Mrs. Printz and Miss Edith Sont were on their way from his High street store to his home, about three blocks distant. Miss Sont was carrying a box containing $2,500, the day's receipts, and a lot of Thrift Stamps and Liberty Bonds, the whole aggregating about $5,000.

Printz stopped at Gerhart's restaurant to leave an order, and Mrs. Printz and Miss Sont continued slowly ahead. As they reached the lawn of fomer State Senator Henry D. Saylor's residence a man jumped from behind a tree, seized the money and valuables, leaped the fence of the Saylor yard and escaped by way of Apple street. Printz ran after the thief, but he was too fleet of foot and easily escaped.

MODEL TOWN FOR HOMES

Five Hundred Acres Acquired for 800 Dwellings Near Portsmouth, Va.

Norfolk, Va., June 10.—The housing commission of the Hampton roads naval district announced Saturday that tracts of land on Paradise Creek in Norfolk county, aggregating about 500 acres, had been acquired and that the government will finance the erection of a model town of 800 residences for working men employed at the naval base, army and ordnance depots.

Designs for the village by George B. Post, of New York, have been approved and work will begin at once. The property is located about three miles from the Portsmouth postoffice and is reached by trolley. Rear Admiral Harris, head of the housing board, will direct the construction work.

TWO FATALLY INJURED

Sheriff Seeks to Arrest Alleged Deserters and Is Fired Upon as He Nears House.

Gadsden, Ala., June 10.—In a pitched battle between officers and alleged deserters from the army in Big Wills Valley, near here, Saturday, Sheriff John Lewis and a woman were probably fatally wounded and two men less seriously hurt.

The officers were approaching the home of Lige Bonds when fire was opened on them. They returned the fire, wounding the woman. The men fled and two of them were shot, while Sheriff Lewis, received a shotgun wound in the head.

HUNS DRUG TROOPS TO KILL

Use Something That Turns Them Into Murderous Maniacs.

Pittsburgh, June 10. — That German storm troops are using a drug producing a maniacal desire to kill is asserted by Frederick Wilkes, of the United States Engineers, now in France, writing to his father, a well-known newspaper man here. After telling of an unsuccessful Hun attack, he says:

"They were driven back. Our boys followed and came across piles of their dead, the bodies still being warm. We were worn out with a long bombardment and began to look for drinking water. One of the boys noticed canteens on the bodies of the dead Germans and took one of them off with the idea of getting water.

"When he took a swallow he found it was strong rum. A more venturesome one decided to taste the stuff more thoroughly. He had not swallowed it long before he became a raving maniac, with a crazed desire to kill every one he saw. It was then we discovered the rum had been drugged."

FRANCE NOT BLED WHITE

French Representative Declares His People Are Not Discouraged.

Philadelphia, June 10.—"It is not true that France has been bled white," Professor Charles Bieler, representative of the Protestant churches of France, declared yesterday in the First Baptist church, Seventeenth and Sansom streets. Rev. Carter Helm Jones introduced the speaker, whose topic was "A Message From France."

"Our losses have been great," he said, "but France is still strong. We are not discouraged. The French army has resisted the German onslaught not only with their bodies, but with their souls. France will not abandon her hopes, some of which are political in character. Alsace-Lorraine is one of them. The recovery of these provinces is the dream, the hope of Frenchmen. We are thankful to you in American for sending your sons over in order that we may regain them."

German Officer Attacks Girl.

A happy Belgian maiden, seeing her prospective husban delubbed to death with the butt-end of a musket, under orders from Gen. Von Gluck; her father shot down and herself torn from the arms of her aged grandmother by a German officers, Captain von Hancke who fortunately was unable to accomplish his evil purpose, these experiences of Ruth Clifford provide but a slight idea of the atrocities of the German barbarians in their advance through Belgium that are faithfully and authentically shown, with many heretofore unknown insights into the private life of the German emperor, as played by Julian Rupert, in his sensational screen expose of the German brutes, "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," to be shown at the Richmond Theater this evening.

Blocking of Zeebrugge

London, June 10.—The plight of the Germans at the Belgian submarine base at Zeebrugge, in consequence of the measures taken by the British navy to blockade the port, is even more serious than has been believed heretofore.

Photographs just taken from airplanes show that the entrance to the harbor is rapidly silting up, and that accordingly the British effort to close the channel is being re-enforced by nature.

The sunken vessel inside the breakwater which was at first believed to be an enemy destroyer now appears to be a large dredger. The loss of this ship evidently has crippled the Germans in their efforts to clear the channel.

No German King Is Cry.

Stockholm, June 8.—"If we are to have a king, let it be Mannerheim, and not a German junker, is the cry that is sweeping Finland.

Much ill-feeling prevails as a result o fthe pensioning of General Mannerheim by the Germans. Helsingfors has become a center of political intrigue.

A German colonel, von Dodern, has been made chief of staff, and reorganized the army which is to consist of twenty-seven battalions formed on German lines with German officers and instructors

TUG CAUGHT IN SPOUT

Norfolk Crew Has Narrow Escape at Mouth of Pasquotank River

Norfolk, Va., June 10. — News reached the city Saturday morning that the tugboat Patridge, of Norfolk, was caught in a waterspout and whirlwind yesterday afternoon at the mouth of the Pasquotank river, near Elizabeth City, N. C., and completely capsized and sunk. Although caught beneath the craft, the five members of the crew escaped and successfully reached the shore.

ANOTHER STEAMER SUNK

Pinal Del Rio Attacked Saturday Off Maryland Coast.

Washington, June 10.—The American steamer Pinal Del Rio was sunk by an enemy submarine on June 8 during the morning, it was announced last night by the Navy Department. She was of 2,504 tons.

The sinking occurred about seventy-five miles off the Maryland coast.

It is not known whether she carried passengers, although it is believed there were a few aboard.

This makes eighteen vessels sunk by the German U-boat raiders off the Atlantic coast, including eight steamers and ten ships of other types, mostly schooners.

London, June 10.—Patrick Devitts, Genoa correspondent of the Express, learns from Hamburg advices that seven U-boats, three of the latest and largest type, and the other four of a smaller size, are operating in American waters.

GREEKS VICTIMS OF TURKS

Over 200,000 Have Been Forcibly Drafted Into Army, and Thousands Have Died.

New York, June 10.—Mohammedan prisoners of war in Saloniki, according to a cable message from Athens to the Greek legation in Washington, made public here Saturday by the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief, say that "the Greeks in Turkey are undergoing the worst blow since the fall of Constantinople, 1453 A. D."

The message states that the Mohammedan captives say that since the beginning of the war to the end of 1917 more than 200,000 Greeks between the ages of fifteen and forty-eight have been drafted forcibly into the Turkish army and that thousands of these have died as a result of ill treatment, hunger and epidemics.

"More than 500,000 Greeks have been deported from Thrace into Asia Minor. One-half of the deported died from torture and illness," says the cable message. 'Many were slaughtered and the survivors are in a terrible plight. With the exception of Smyrna, Constantinople and a few other towns, all the Greeks in them underwent terrible suffering, exile, torture and starvation.

"Women are sold as slaves, men are forced to become Mohammedans and $5,000,000,000 worth of property belonging to the Greeks has been confiscated.

"The streets in the larger cities are full of Greek orphans, half-naked and begging for bread in spite of the fact that the Turkish authorities have torn them from the bosoms of their parents."

OFFICIAL ENDS LIFE

Henry Wise Booker, of Hampton, Sends Bullet Into His Brain.

Norfolk, Va., June 10.—Henry Wise Booker, commissioner of revenue of Elizabeth City county and one of the best-known officials in the eastern section of Virginia, committed suicide yesterday morning at his residence at Hampton.

He shot himself through the right temple and death was instantoneous. Ill health is declared to have been the cause of this act.

PASSENGER FARES JUMP

New Rates Announced by Director-General McAdoo in Effect Tomorrow.

New railroad rates announced some days ago by William G. McAdoo, director general of railroads, become effective today, and impose a materially higher rate for both passenger and freight traffic. Because of this increase, for several days there has been an unusual amount of passenger traffic, people endeavoring to start summer vacations and do other traveling before the new rates become effective.

Passenger rates are increased from two and a half cents to three cents per mile, plus the prevailing special war tax on all railroad tickets. Passengers traveling in Pullman cars will be forced to pay an additional charge of sixteen and one-half per cent of the normal one-way fare. The Pullman Company recently announced slight changes also in its rates, the minimum charge for a berth being increased from $1.50 to $2.

Mileage books will be advanced to $30, making the rate three cents per mile. All books purchased before June 10 will not be honored today, but may be exchanged for books of the new issue. Passenger fares for transportation are also increased proportionately to railroad fares. Elaborate tariffs, covering every phrase of the new rates, have just been issued and filed by the local ticket offices.

MARINES HOLD HARD

Germans Lose Heavily In Unsuccessful Counter-Attacks.

Washington, June 10.—Gen. Pershing's communique for Saturday, delayed in transmission until last night, tells of unsuccessful hostile attacks northwest of Chateau Thierry Friday night, in which the enemy lost heavily without reaching the American lines at any point. The communique follows:

"Section A—Northwest of Chateau Thierry hostile attacks were made on a front of two miles during the night, after artillery preparation. These were repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy and without having reached our lines at any point.

"There is nothing to report from the other points occupied by our troops.

"Section B—Nothing to report in this section."
